Antioch confronts energy crisis

Hire two for Police Department

Two new members were added to the Antioch Police Department by the Village Board, Monday, December 3. The appointments are effective immediately.

Sandra Domke will bring the number of dispatchers back to four, replacing Garnett Cook, who left the department because of ill health.

Ronald Taylor, formerly a patrolman in Lindenhurst, will serve in the same capacity in Antioch. He replaces Robert Learmont, who has moved from Antioch.

The Board also authorized the hiring of an additional patrolman before January 1.

Village Attorney Andrew Lynch presented an ordinance, as proposed two weeks ago by Trustee Mike Haley, lowering the Village vehicle license fee for those 65 years of age and older to one dollar. Previously the rate was six dollars for Reactions to the national energy crisis took several forms in Antioch during the past week.

Village trustees discussed possible energy-saving measures at the Board meeting Monday night. Trustee Mike Haley reported that he had received several calls concerning the downtown Christmas decorations. Citizens have been wondering, he said, whether the Village should save energy by turning off the lights on the decorations.

"Personally, I enjoy the Christmas season more with the decorations lit up," Trustee Bill Seemann commented. "If we could get cooperation from the merchants (in turning off outdoor neon signs), I think it would be more pleasant and attract more shoppers with just the decorations."

Haley mentioned that he had conferred with Mr. Thelen of Commonwealth Edison and was told that each Christmas tree decoration is the equivalent of only a 40 watt light bulb. To this, Mayor Robert Wilton added that just one of his outdoor signs would consume more electricity than the decorations.

At the suggestion of Trustee Marge Nelson, Haley moved that a letter be sent to all merchants in the village, asking voluntary cooperation in turning off all outdoor signs during non-business hours, for the duration of the crisis situation. This was unanimously endorsed by the trustees as a way to save energy while leaving the decorations lit.

Mrs. Nelson also proposed sending letters to operators of gasoline stations, urging them to remain closed on Sundays. Again the trustees approved.

A spot check of all gas stations in the Antioch area Sunday morning disclosed that all but two were closed. The only places where gasoline was available were the Maverick station, 830 Main, and Tom's '66 Service, Route 59 and Grass Lake Road. A further check indicated that these sources may not be available any longer.

Billy Wolford, manager of the Maverick station, said Tuesday that he has been in contact with his company and was told that gasoline deliveries may be decreased. If gasoline is available, Wolford said, he plans to remain open one more Sunday, if the gas supply lasts that long.

An employee of Tom's '66 stated that the manager intended to close on Sundays from now on, in compliance with the suggestion of President Nixon.

Another spot check of business areas of Antioch late Monday night revealed that most merchants are already complying with the request, made originally through the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, to turn off outdoor display signs. Only seven such signs were seen to be on Monday night, two of these -- at the Vault Restaurant and the Village Pub -- being on establishments that were still open for business.

The only other large outdoor display signs observed on in the village Monday night were at: A.R.C. Rental (Routes 59 and 173), Dick Witt Insurance (Lake Street), Antioch Firestone (Rte. 173), Pittman Pontiac (Main Street) and State Bank (Lake Street).

On another front, Mayor Wilton, in an open letter to the citizens of Antioch published in THE ANTIOCH NEWS, is encouraging area residents to do their Christmas shopping locally, in order to conserve the fuel that would otherwise be used driving to distant shopping centers.

Decorate our community Christmas tree

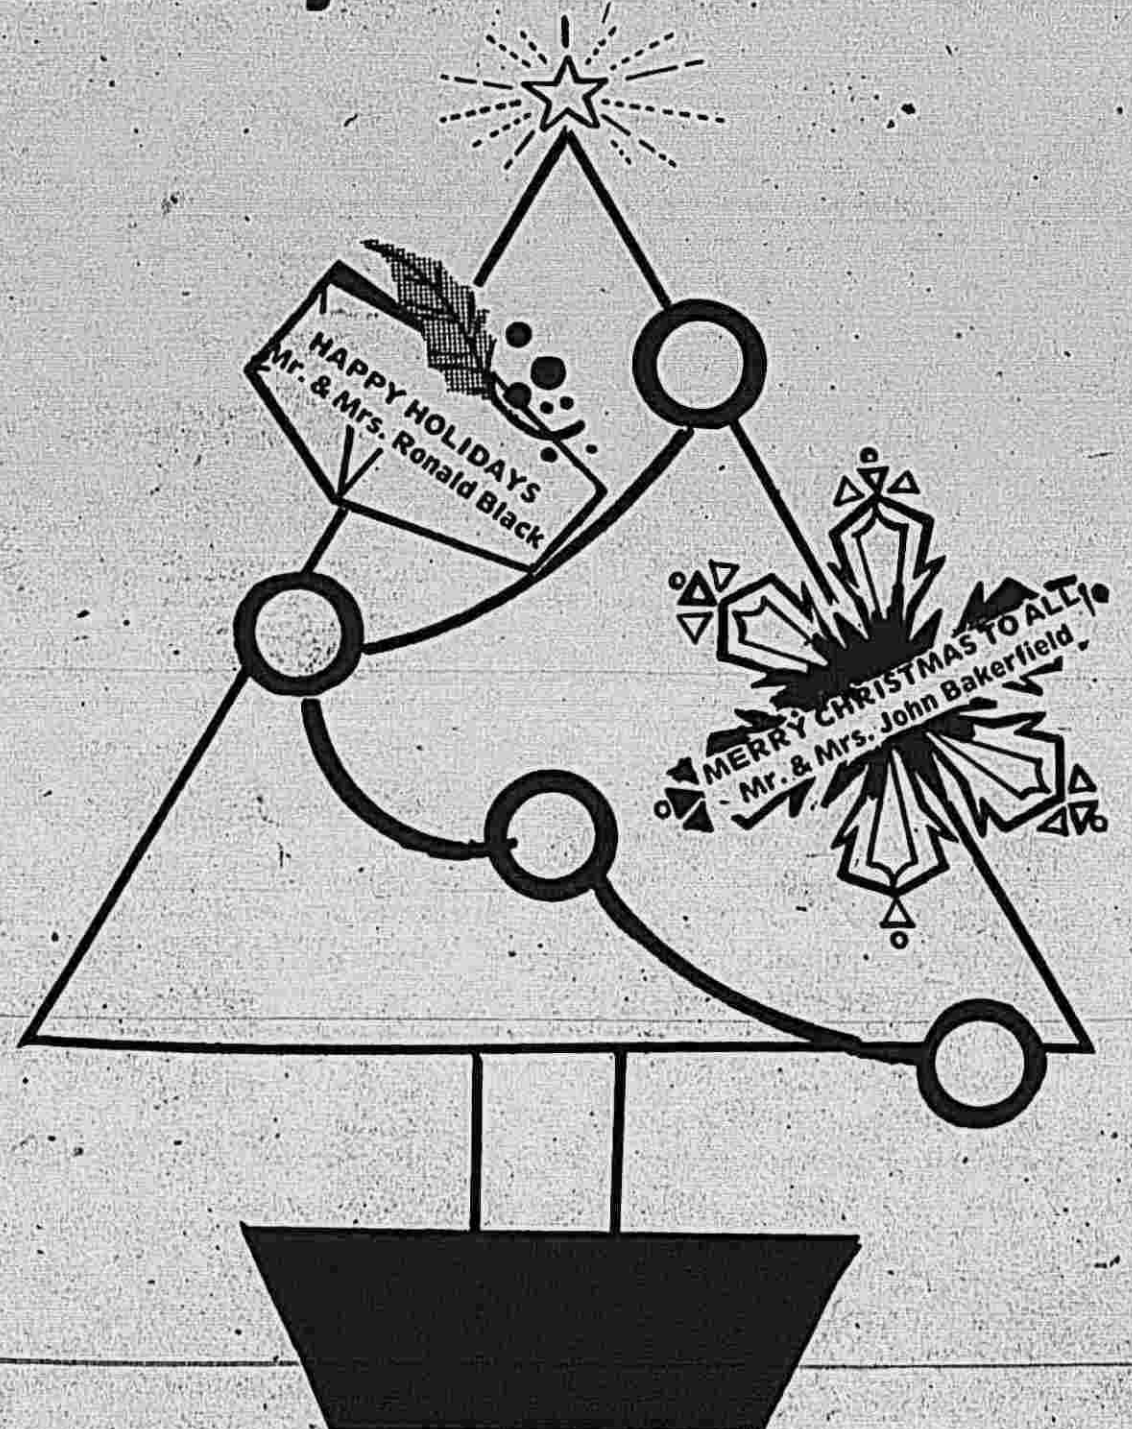

As a service to our readers who wish to contribute the cost of Christmas cards and postage to a charity, THE ANTIOCH NEWS will "decorate" a community Christmas tree in the December 19 edition.

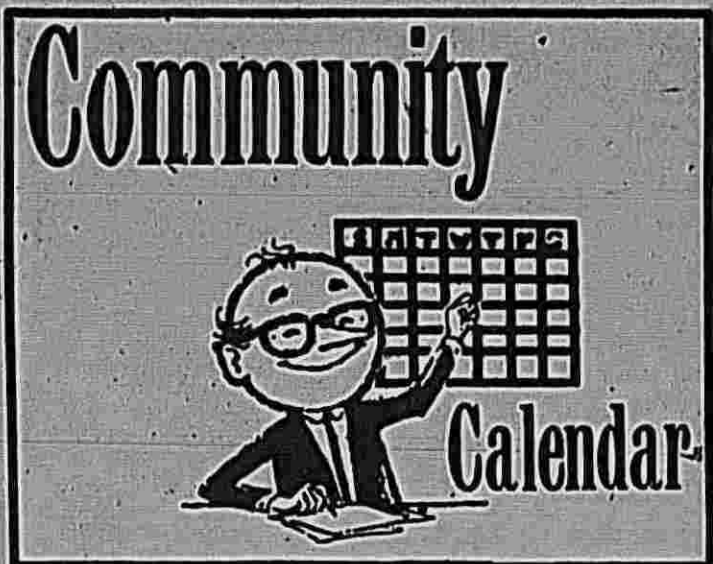

Persons may come to the News office, 141 Cheri Lane, between December 6 and December 17, and make a donation to their favorite charity. The minimum donation that can be handled in this way is five dollars; a service charge of two dollars will be made to help cover costs. Any unspecified contributions will be given to the Antioch Rescue Squad.

The donor's name and a line of greeting will become a light or ornaments on the community Christmas tree.

This service is only for individuals and not persons engaged in business activity.

The fully-decorated community Christmas tree will be published in the December 19 issue of THE ANTIOCH NEWS, which will go into 1,900 home of Antioch area residents and former residents who now live elsewhere.

LIGHT VOTING DEFEATS SCHOOL BID

The re-instatement of programs cut from the Antioch Grade School, District No. 34, budget in the Spring of 1972 was delayed until 1975, at the earliest, with the defeat of a tax increase referendum Saturday.

With only 986 voters coming to the polls to vote, the measure fell by an almost 2 to 1 margin. Excluding seven ballots that were spoiled, the final tally was: YES -- 354, NO -- 625.

The tax rate increase was turned down in all three voting precincts. At Antioch Grade School, the vote was 238 to 378; Channel Lake School voters split 31 to 130; and at Oakland School the margin was 85 to 117.

Supporters of the referendum blamed the low voter turn-out, especially, they said, among parents, for the defeat.

Describing the light vote as

HAMMOND ORGAN SOCIETY PLANS XMAS PARTY

Members of the Lake County Hammond Organ Society will hold a Christmas Party on Sunday, December 9, at 3:00 p.m. at The Parkway Restaurant, Waukegan. Mrs. George Simnicht and Mrs. Carmel Francke will entertain at the organ and a variety program will be presented. There will be games, prizes, and fun. Members will be awarded a portion of their dinner expense by the Chapter. Friends of the Society are welcome and reservations by phone will be accepted by Mrs. Virgil Stewart, Vice President.

No regular meeting will be held in December.

"pathetic," Superintendent Henry Meyer reported Monday that the Board will meet Thursday evening to canvass the votes. Meyer said that he does not expect any further referendum attempts for quite a while.

everyone. The ordinance also establishes a replacement fee of one dollar. The measure passed unanimously. Stickers are now on sale at the Village Hall.

There was a negative vote cast on a motion by Haley to allow the new owners of the Antioch Lumber Co. to erect a non-conforming sign on their building on Depot Street. Trustee Marge Nelson opposed the plan, which had been recommended unanimously by the Board's sign committee.

Three sets of bids were opened, of which two were approved, while the third was tabled pending receipt of further information.

Skach Manufacturing Co., 950 Anita, submitted a bid of $26,600 for a 30' by 255' parcel of land on the west side of Anita Avenue, opposite Sequoit Avenue, in the industrial park area. With little difficulty, the Board accepted this bid over the $3,000 bid of Laursen and Blackman Co.

Only one bid was received for the purchase of the fire

Three bids received for the job of air conditioning the Rescue Squad building were tabled, when Trustee Bill Seemann suggested that more information on the proposals be sought from the bidders.

A citizen concerned with fire protection in the areas east of the railroad tracks requested that the trustees look into the possibility of constructing a fire station and Rescue Squad annex east of the tracks, to avoid delay on account of trains blocking the crossings, in the event of an emergency. Board members agreed that such a facility would be needed eventually; however, no definite action was taken.

Attorney Ken Clark, repre-sending Ken Mazucca, developer of the Sequoit Apartment complex on Main Street south of Route 173, asked the Board for an ordinance which would enable his client to recapture part of the $13,700 he was required to spend to extend a sewer line to his project. The suggested ordinance would apply part of this cost to any other property owner who hooks onto this sewer line in the future. The matter was turned over to a committee headed by Seemann to be negotiated, with the assistance of Village Engineer Frank Angelotti.

The trustees also discussed the problem of lighting Christmas decorations and asking merchants to turn off their outside signs, as efforts to conserve energy, as reported in another story in today's paper.

SAVE ENERGY, SHOP ANTIOCH

The energy crisis, it appears, is upon us. Numerous suggestions have been made as to how we can conserve energy.

There is one contribution almost all of us in Antioch can make, right now, that will lessen the consumption of gasoline. We feel that this action will also prove of great benefit to our hometown, and so we strongly recommend it to you.

Shop Antioch.

Mayor Robert Wilton, in an open letter to the people of Antioch published in our paper, is encouraging residents to do their Christmas shopping in our local community. We urge you to follow the mayor's suggestion.

There seems to be a common belief in towns such as Antioch that one must go elsewhere for any "serious" shopping. Especially during the Christmas season -- the busiest month of the year -- there is a mass exodus to the larger towns, the large shopping centers and even to downtown Chicago. Such shopping excursions, at round-trip distances of 40 to 120 miles, we think, are a waste of time, money and -- most importantly, now -- gasoline.

By the time that mileage and other travel costs are figured in, about $10 to $15 is added to the cost of merchandise bought on such trips.

Right here in Antioch, one can find most anything desired. Our stores contain a wide variety of merchandise in almost any price range. There is little that could be bought at some distant shopping center that cannot be found here at home, at no greater cost on the average.

Working through the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, storekeepers have already planned a Christmas Hospitality Night for Thursday, December 6. This is an effort to make shopping more pleasant and to acquaint Antioch residents with what is available in the local stores. Two Saturday matinees have also been scheduled at the Antioch Theatre, at the expense of the businessmen, which will allow shopping to be done without having to keep one eye on the children.

When you shop Antioch, you have the advantage of dealing with hometown merchants many of whom you may know, whom you can trust for customer satisfaction, service and quality merchandise.

When you shop Antioch, the money you spend stays in your own community, strengthening the local economy and being put to use in projects to benefit to all of us.

When you shop Antioch, you do so in a warm, friendly atmosphere, among friends and neighbors.

When you shop Antioch, you not only save several gallons of gasoline -- an important step in this time of shortage -- but you save several dollars of miscellaneous wear and tear on your car and several hours of driving time.

Do your part.

Conserve energy.

Shop Antioch.

To The Citizens of Antioch

With the approach of the Christmas Season and the New Year, it is evident that we are faced with conditions which will cause a hardship to our present life style.

Responding to this, President Nixon is considering enforcing Government restrictions on sales of gasoline. We are already feeling the effect of this shortage; in many cases service stations that are normally open on weekends are now closed. Also, a customer wanting a full tank of gasoline is now limited to a few gallons.

During this festive season many citizens travel to suburban shopping centers to do their Christmas shopping. To help conserve this vital energy, I am asking you to do your part by shopping this Christmas Season in our local community. We have a wide variety of fine and well stocked stores. Shopping hours have been lengthened and parking has been improved for your convenience. My hope is that you will cooperate in this endeavor and have a joyful Christmas Season.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Wilton - Mayor
Village of Antioch

McClory tells of manpower and employment laws.

The U.S. House of Representatives is endeavoring to consolidate manpower training and employment legislation through its recent passage of the Comprehensive Manpower Act of 1973 (H.R. 11010).

The new measure combines the so-called Job Corps, Minority and Migratory Farm Workers Programs, the Public Employment Program (PEP), and other measures designed to relieve unemployment and underemployment. Some of these programs were funded formerly as part of the discredited Poverty Program (Office of Economic Opportunity -- or OEO).

In this new proposal, the Congress is establishing a special revenue-sharing measure to be administered primarily by state, county and municipal officials. The new measure authorizes an initial appropriation of $250 million for the fiscal year ending next July, and $500 million per year thereafter.

The continuation of the successful Public Employment

Program (particularly in Illinois) is assured by passage of the measure. Also, the bill reaffirms the earlier decision of President Nixon to abandon the quasi-public Community Action Programs (CAP). However, counties and cities having a population of more than 100,000 are permitted to designate CAP agencies as contracting parties where the county or city delegates such authority.

The Committee Report gives special recognition to such highly successful organizations as the Opportunities Industrialization Centers (OIC) which have provided particular advantages to minorities to become skilled tradesmen. In addition, the Jobs of Progress Program (SER) which has benefited Spanish-speaking citizens is expected to be expanded under the new measure.

Despite the Democratic control of the Congress, the measure adopts to a large extent recommendations proposed by the Nixon Administration. It constitutes an effective vehicle for applying the principle of special revenue sharing for manpower training -- and represents a truly bi-partisan effort to solve the problems of acute unemployment.

The overall program, which will be administered by the United States Department of Labor, has received overwhelming public support, including the active endorsement of the National Governor's Conference, the League of Cities and Conference of Mayors, the National Association of Counties, the AFL-CIO and the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

In urging the passage of this measure by the U.S. House of Representatives, Congressman Edwin Forsythe of New Jersey summarized the advantages of the new program as follows:

"One of the most important things we can do to strengthen our country and improve our society is to help assure that every person who is unemployed, or employed at a wage below the poverty level, has a real chance to find a decent job. An effective manpower program makes good sense -- both in social and economic terms. This bill would provide that kind of a broad, flexible authority."

BILL MURPHY: PARTY LEADERSHIP BEHIND THE SCENES

THE ANTIOCH NEWS spent a day in Springfield recently, talking to our 32nd District legislators and observing them in action. Each of the men was most cooperative and spent considerable time talking with us concerning his job and issues of particular interest to the people of Antioch. The following article is part of a series on our State lawmakers, to acquaint our readers with them in a non-campaign atmosphere.

(Third in series of four)

Some party leaders in the Illinois legislature make a lot of noise. Speaker of the House Robert Blair, top man among the Republicans, has made a name for himself, with his periodic confrontations with the governor.

Then there are other party leaders, rarely heard from publicly, seeming to prefer a behind-the-scenes approach. As Majority Whip, Rep. W.J. Murphy, of Antioch, is responsible for, figuratively, "whipping" his fellow Republicans into line behind legislation favored by the party leadership.

Murphy's office adjoins that of Blair, behind the House chamber (currently being rehabilitated) in the State Capitol building. The contrasting styles of leadership are reflected in the two men's offices.

In fairness, it should be pointed out that Blair's office is handed down from Speaker to Speaker; yet, the approximately 30 foot square room, with its large desks and chandelier lights, is as colorful and imposing as Blair's style.

By contrast, Murphy's approximately 8' by 15' office is Spartan. The Antioch lawmaker's own desk, looking somewhat like an old library table, is clear of excess paperwork or decoration. Furnishing is at a minimum, and the lighting is kept low. Significantly, however, there is, as in every legislator's office, a speaker on the wall broadcasting the proceedings from the House, which currently meets in another building. Murphy seems to keep one ear constantly attuned to the Speaker. He will stop in the middle of a conversation to listen to some key maneuvering on an important piece of legislation.

Keeping abreast of legislation and of what is happening on the floor of the House is part of Murphy's job as party whip. He says that a good part of his time each day is spent on leadership responsibilities.

In the Republican party, at least, the work of leadership is divided among the five or six men in the top posts.

"Each of the leaders has a certain number of committees that he is in charge of," Murphy reports, "and we steer legislation through the recommendations of what the leadership position is on these bills. We try to either defeat them or pass them in the committees."

The two parties are almost equally divided in the Illinois House this term, and so the task of leadership in encouraging party loyalty is crucial. As the majority party, at least technically, the Republicans hold the greater number of seats on each committee and are allotted a larger budget for such things as staff and research.

In addition to helping to crack the whip over his party colleagues, Murphy must carry out the regular duties of a State representative, which he refers to as being "great glorified errand boys for the district." But he says he considers this "a very important part of the job."

As a lawmaker, Murphy also sponsors legislation that he personally introduces and guides through the House. He cites the example of the bill introduced in the past session to create a commission to study the Chain O'Lakes, mentioning that it is difficult to get an individually-sponsored appropriation for a project such as cleaning up the Chain past the governor's veto. "With a commission to do it and when the commission brings in the bill, it is given more credence than if just an individual representative is bringing it in," he explains.

With all this work to do, Murphy says that he hardly ever leaves his office, when in session, before eight o'clock at night, staying sometimes even later.

AT SPEAKER'S PODIUM. Antioch's W.J. Murphy assists the Acting Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives. As one of the Republican Party Whips, Murphy is responsible for guiding legislation through the House and its committees. (Staff Photo)

Exemplifying the behind-the-scenes dealing which sometimes takes place to achieve the passage of a particular piece of legislation, Murphy claims major credit -- "without fear of correction" -- for getting the money for Antioch's sewage treatment plant expansion project.

With "help from some of our friends on the other side of the aisle," he says, "we held up the E.P.A.'s appropriation downstairs, in the Appropriations Committee. We wouldn't give them the money for their offices or anything until we could get an answer." Murphy says that he was also able to obtain cooperation from Congressman Dan Rostenkowski, of Chicago, who put pressure on the EPA in Washington to speed Antioch's application through the bureaucratic red tape.

Along the same lines, when the Waukegan Port Authority was in danger of losing funds for the operation of Waukegan

Memorial Airport, Murphy reveals, "We picked it up and went after it to the governor's office and made a little trade here and there, and we got their money for them."

Whether this quiet, unheralded approach, or the more bombastic public confrontations, as between Blair and Walker, is more successful is a debatable question, but there will be practitioners of both methods for as long as there are elected representatives.

CALL LEADS POLICE TO BURGLAR

A phone call to the police by an Antioch resident, worried about a suspicious person near a neighbor's home, resulted in the apprehension of a burglar, Thursday, November 29.

Chief of Police Jack Wells commended the woman for reporting the questionable incident. "This is the sort of citizen responsibility we are looking for," Wells said, pointing out that if the suspect had been acting with permission that fact would have been easily ascertained and the matter dropped.

The incident began when the woman noticed a young man looking around a neighbor's home in the Henning's Court area. The suspect looked in windows, knocked on them, and then went to the rear of the house. A few minutes later, he was seen running from the house with a television set in his hands.

Calling the police, the neighbor gave a brief description of the suspect and reported that his white car had headed north toward Route 173. Police Sergeant Tim Zelinski was dispatched to the scene.

Zelinski said that there were two ways the suspect could have gone, either east or west on 173. "I took a chance that he had gone east," Zelinski said, "and went south on Main Street. When I got to the corner of Main and 173, there was a white car stopped at the light." The car was pulled over near the railroad tracks on Route 173.

According to Zelinski's report, there was a TV set on the front seat of the car. After being advised of his rights, the driver, Jack T. Lowrance, of Zion, admitted to the theft.

Lowrance was taken to the police station to be questioned, where he voluntarily gave a statement, again admitting to entering the home and taking the television set.

Taken to Lake County jail on a charge of burglary-forcible entry, Lowrance was released on $5,000 recognizance bond by Judge Alvin Singer. Court date for Lowrance is set for December 20, in Waukegan.

Antioch police have not yet been as successful with several other thefts reported in the past two weeks.

The manager of the Maverick gas station on Main Street called the police, Monday, November 19, to report more than $800 and a recently-hired employee missing from his station. The employee had been responsible for opening the station in the morning. When the manager checked on the morning of the 19th, the employee was gone, and an envelope of cash had been slipped out of the safe. The former employee was last seen walking north on Main Street.

Another theft from a safe, at Swan's Liquors, is also under investigation by police. The manager and employees do not recall anyone having been in the area of the office; however, more than $1,000 was discovered missing from the safe.

Police are also investigating the theft of a gold-colored 1968 Ford XL, 2-door hardtop from the parking lot of the Colonial Apartments and another house burglary.

HAHN'S NEW DEPARTMENT. Hahn's Jewelers, on Main Street in Antioch, has established a new center jewelry department, offering the area's largest selection of famous Trifari and other well-known lines of costume jewelry, as well as Imperial cultured pearls, fine gold jewelry, leather goods, desk sets, etc. (Staff Photo)

SOCIAL CHANGE IN TAIWAN

By: Taffy Engelhardt

Availability of Education

It is a well-known fact that the Chinese always have had great respect for education. Since the founding of the Republic, more schools of the modern type have been established, and more people began to have such an opportunity. Yet due to political instability on the Mainland, the course of educational development has never been smooth. Since the Central Government moved to Taiwan, one of its main purposes is to develop education in an orderly way according to the needs of the nation, in spite of the difficulties it has to face. According to stipulations in the Constitution, expenditure of the Central Government on education, science and culture should not be less than 15 percent of its total budget, that of the provincial governments such as county or city should not be less than 35 percent of its total budget. Except expenditure on national defense, educational expenditure accounts for the largest portion of the Government's total budget. The educational policy of the government is to strengthen the relationship between planning, to develop education in science, to improve higher education, to enrich research institutes and to promote modernized social education. On the basis of this policy, Free China has carried out some important measures for educational development during the last years.

Starting with the mid 1950's, senior high schools were assigned to the charge of provincial government, and junior high schools to the charge of the county and city governments. Since the first period of the 1960's, colleges and universities began to have their night schools. In 1963 junior colleges for technological training were changed from the previous 3-year period to 5-year period. Furthermore, since 1968 the 9-year Free Education Program was implemented, and hence the 3-year period of junior high school education automatically becomes the free, compulsory education.

During the last 25 years there have been great social changes in Taiwan. The most drastic changes have occurred in these four interrelated fields: the economic, the political, the educational, and the demographic.

In the political field, Taiwan has changed from a Japanese colony into a province of the Republic of China under the Central Government. Since the principle of democracy has been put into practice, the undertaking is that every citizen in Taiwan becomes his or her master, having all the rights as stipulated in the Chinese Constitution.

The main trend of the social changes in Taiwan may be viewed from various angles. If it is viewed from the point of human relationships, the trend is from the familistic type toward the contractual type. If it is viewed from the ways of life or modes of living, it is from ruralism toward urbanism or agricultural society. And if it is viewed from the point of human relationships, the trend is from the familistic type toward the contractual type. If it is viewed from the ways of life or modes of living, it is from ruralism toward urbanism or agricultural society. And if it is viewed from the point of social control, it is from the sacred type of society toward the secular type. The main trend is from traditionalism toward modernization. The method or means employed in the changes is peaceful, and democratic. Many of the results brought about by the changes are as expected or as predetermined, and are generally for the common good, though not all of them may prove to be for the best to everyone's satisfaction.

Sure to keep up with the rest of her articles in the issues of THE ANTIOCH NEWS to follow as we have just received letters from her about her travels in Hong Kong, Singapore and Jakarta, Indonesia.

AWARD CONTRACTS FOR ROUTE 59 IMPROVEMENT

The Illinois Department of Transportation announced on November 19, 1973 the award of two contracts for the improvement of Illinois Route 59 from the intersection with US-Route 12 to the intersection with Illinois Route 173, between Fox Lake and Antioch, Lake County, Illinois.

The project has been under consideration for several years, and has now been approved through the cooperation of the Lake County Highway Department, the Village of Fox Lake, and the State Legislature.

The award was made to the Lakeland Construction Company, Inc., of McHenry, McHenry County, Illinois, on their combination low bid of $1,320,000.00, for the two contracts.

Work on this project will begin in December of 1973, and is to be completed in October of 1974. The first stage of construction will include a new bridge across Squaw Creek.

The Regional Transportation Engineer asks for the cooperation of the local motorists who may be inconvenienced during the construction. A road closure of four (4) months duration will be necessary during the spring and early summer months of 1974. Access to all abutting properties will be provided to minimize the inconvenience.

Drivers are cautioned to be alert to lane closures, barricades, warning signs and lights, and to the contractor's equipment and traffic.

Ode to Father

This poem was written to Mr. Leo Buchta by his daughter Barbara Jecevicus for his birthday. Mr. Buchta will be 89 years old on December 7.

Father

I close my eyes, and there you are your silver hair and laughing eyes.
I touch your gentle hands that help to make the flowers grow.

I see the rain upon your face as you planted the seeds in the land.
I feel your hug that brings you near.
I think of you every day and all the days that have gone by.
I remember the days you carried me with your strong arms.
I remember Father the good time we had and the Sunday afternoon drives.

The birds, the bees and the pony.
You used to tell me the robin song would tell the kind of weather.
I love you Father for the love you have for my Mother.
No one could be prouder than I to have you for my Father.
You just grow dearer to me.

Rain, Rain go away, little Johnny wants to go out and play with his snowmobile in the snow today!

I bet there isn't another village that provided its Fire Chief with a new fire engine on his birthday. Last Thursday Tod Maplethorpe went to Kenosha and picked up a new $50,000 fire engine. There wasn't a happier man around. Congrats Tod - hope you had a super day.

Former Antioch resident, Father Joseph Savage is now living in the St. Monica Home in Racine, Wisconsin 53401. He sure would enjoy hearing from all his friends. Why not drop him a note or card and keep him posted on happenings in Antioch?

Barb Corbin ABC'S OF TRAVEL PROMOTIONAL FARES

These are rates below regular levels established to stimulate traffic, particularly at times when the carrier is not busy. Promotional fares are almost always roundtrip and are restricted in one way or another. They may be good only at certain hours, days and in certain seasons along with certain time limits. However they NEVER apply during the major holidays. Think of them as "Sales"; you can save a lot of money.

For those of you who are planning a vacation but don't want to be on a tour, a lot can be saved on the air if you let your travel agent make the arrangements for the entire vacation. Many cities have tour basing fares which is a reduced-rate excursion fare available only to those who buy prepaid packages. These independent packages include air, accommodations and rental car with unlimited mileage. Besides the savings on the air, you end up with a sizable savings on the car and accommodations. The air alone can save you over $75.00 a person.

This in itself, is proof of why all your ads tell you to consult your local Travel Agent for advise and planning of your next vacation. These savings can give a good start for your next vacation.

If air only is wanted, then you have the family fares which sometimes can work out a bit more reasonable than the various promotion fares. There are a million and one ways of figuring out the costs for various flights. The travel agent is working with these rates daily, so he knows how to save you money.

TWO ARRESTED ON GUN, TRAFFIC CHARGES

Two men were arrested by Antioch police early Saturday morning following investigation of a reported fight in the Village parking lot near the Limerick Lounge, on Broadway.

Patrolman Stan Revell was dispatched to the scene following an anonymous phone tip reporting a fight in progress, during which a gunshot had supposedly been fired. On arrival, Revell said that he observed a car leaving the parking lot and was told that the subjects involved in the fight were in the car.

Revell pursued the car east on Orchard Street and south on Main Street. His report states that the car ran a red light at Main and Lake. The fleeing auto was finally stopped by Patrolman Bob Learmont, who had blocked the roadway with his squad car at Main and Harden.

Two subjects, L.V. Pope, 23, of Waukegan, and Willie J. Nichols, 28, of North Chicago, were ordered from the car and frisked. Revell reported that Pope dropped a holster from his pocket before getting out the car. Both men were placed under arrest and taken to the police station, with the assistance of Sheriff's Deputy McGarvey, who had arrived on the scene.

In searching the car, Learmont stated that he found a small caliber gun under the front seat. Both subjects denied ownership of the gun, however.

At the station, the men were questioned. Meanwhile, four other young men, three of them from Antioch, came into the station and reportedly began yelling abuses and obscenities at Pope and Nichols, who are Negroes. Police officers reportedly had to make several efforts to quiet them down before one of the men gave a statement as to what had supposedly happened in the parking lot.

According to the Antioch men's story, Pope and Nichols had made abusive statements to a group of white people outside the Limerick Lounge. Pope, they said, drew a gun, which Nichols took from him and fired. Learmont stated that he did not think that the gun confiscated from the car had been fired recently, as the smell of gun powder was very faint, though there was one spent shell in the chamber.

Pope is charged with disorderly conduct, running a red light, and having no valid driver's license. Nichols is charged with disorderly conduct and possession of firearms or ammunition without an identification card. Since they were unable to post bond, they were transported to the Lake County jail.

LAST CHANCE TO SEE "RIP VAN WINKLE"

Only one more weekend remains of performances of the PM&L production of "Rip Van Winkle." Your last chance to see this immortal classic live on the stage of the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch, will occur on Saturday and Sunday, December 8 and 9. There will be 2:30 matinees on both days and a 7 p.m. evening performance on the 9th. The Sunday matinee is already sold out, but you might be able to see either the Saturday afternoon or the Sunday evening show if you act fast and call 395-9702 now for your reservations. The PM&L production, directed by Valerie Hunley, has been charming Antioch audiences ever since the show opened over the Thanksgiving weekend. The play has turned out to be so popular that what were originally scheduled as four performances were eventually increased to eight in an attempt to accommodate all who have wanted to see this holiday show in the PM&L children's theater program. All eight have been heavily subscribed and some were sold out in advance.

Don't let it be said that, even with eight performances, PM&L's "Rip Van Winkle" did not have a seat available for you. Your best insurance against this is to call 395-9702.

Social Notes

By Del Jahneke

Mrs. Joseph Rhymer of rural Antioch, has spent ten days over the Thanksgiving holiday, visiting at the home of her daughter and husband, the C.W. Wikoff's of Urbana, Illinois. While she was there, her granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Scott of St. Louis, also came to Urbana for a few days. Altogether, it was a very special occasion for everyone.

Mrs. Sophia Radakovic of Felter's Subdivision, has just returned home from two weeks packed with activities. First, she visited her son, Ted, his wife and daughter in Memphis, Tennessee. Ted graduated from the Antioch Community High School in 1961, and now owns his own nightclub, which he has named "Eli", after his grandfather. Name bands and performers for top entertainment are giving this splendid club well deserved praise from all who have been there! Next we find Sophia a guest in Palos Park, at her daughter, Millie Bradica's home. The the Bradica family and Sophia travel to Winsor, Ontario and to Detroit, Michigan, seeing the "in-law" side of the relatives. It was a wonderful two weeks, but it's always nice to be home again!

Legion Auxiliary News

Mrs. Robert Broege, Deerfield, rehabilitation chairman of the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary, announces that they will have their annual Christmas Dance-Party at Downey Hospital from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., December 13th. Legionnaires are also invited to this dance since there are women as well as men patients at Downey. The 22 Auxiliary Units will furnish sandwiches, while the 10th District Auxiliary provides eggnog and Christmas cookies.

Volunteers from both the 10th District American Legion and the Auxiliary will be distributing $1.00 canteen books to over 7,500 patients at Downey Hospital and the Great Lakes U.S. Naval Hospital on December 15th, from 9:00 a.m. until completed. Auxiliary volunteers will meet in the Volunteers' Lounge, Building Four at Downey, on December 12th and 13th, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and on December 14, from 9:00 a.m. until finished to address these canteen books. This program is called the "Gifts for Hospitalized War Veterans", and over $7,500.00 will be spent at these two local VA Hospitals.

Originated in 1944 by the late, internationally known entertainers Eddie Cantor and Sophie Tucker, it was for many years a nationwide project. Illinois is now the only state which has continued to sponsor this veterans' project annually. More than 13,000 gifts to men and women veteran patients in VA and other Illinois hospitals are given during the holiday season.

The Illinois American Legion has spent in excess of $2½ million providing yuletide cheer to all hospitalized veterans since the inception of this program. Their funds come from American Legion Posts and Auxiliary Units from throughout the state.

Christmas parties which are VAVS sponsored will be held December 19th and 20th, with sessions from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., which are actually three parties on both days. On December 21st, there will be a party for wheelchair patients only from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 in Building Four in the auditorium and in Room 102 inclusive. Volunteers are always needed, especially on December 21st.

GROWTH IN WESTERN LAKE COUNTY REAL ESTATE MARKET EXPECTED

Local Realtor Michael Warren was installed Monday as a director of the Multiple Listing Service for Lake County Board of Realtors. Warren was inducted for a one year term.

The Antioch firm of Michael Warren & Company has been very active in the area. In addition to single family houses, the firm is involved in commercial and industrial developments.

At a recent Staff Meeting, Mike Warren made some observations regarding the current real estate scene. While single family home sales have tapered off, homes are being sold in this area as seller's recognize the problems of obtaining mortgage money and decide to sell on contract. Dollar volume of sales with the Warren firm continue to be well ahead of sales at this time last year.

Because of its rural nature, the Antioch area is not as dramatically affected by the current stock market say as areas like Chicago. Real estate valuation is a major factor in the Antioch economy. These valuations have continued to increase in response to supply and demand and inflation. While some leveling off is expected in the amount of growth of real estate value, the fact that inflation is expected to continue as is the flow of population, business, and industry to the suburbs.

The stock market has, over the past two years, become subject to erratic sudden swings. With the dramatic drop currently in progress, it can be expected that many investors will be moving their funds out of the market and into the more stable and better yielding real estate investments. For this reason, we are expecting a growing real estate market in western Lake County.

TRUCKLOAD OF TOYS. Marine G. Sgt. Terry Puida and HMC L.D. Linton load the toys contributed by Mrs. Clarence Shultis to the Toys for Tots program. Marines in Waukegan will distribute the repaired toys to needy families for Christmas. (Staff Photo)

Bite from Barb

By: Barb Olson

For the past few days the Yearbook pictures of the various clubs and organizations have been taken at ACHS. Every few minutes a group of students is called over, the intercom to go to a designated place to be photographed. This is difficult for both the teachers and the photographer. The teachers have to tolerate students leaving in the middle of a class, then returning. This is confusing and disruptive. The photographer has to try to get a group of squirming people arranged so that they will form a presentable picture.

If anyone happened to be looking around inside the school, they might be surprised at the strange way the students were milling in the halls. Some groups of students posed in staircases for their pictures. Others might be found sitting or standing in the middle of a hallway. Still others might be found sitting on top of gym lockers. These were only a few of the many different ways the students could think of.

Girls from Antioch Community High School won two matches from Grant in the school's first interscholastic volleyball action, November 17.

The starting line-up for the B Team was Kim Vasek, Kim Case, Linda Kasik, Debbie LaFata, Janet Gillimore and Terri Schleusener. Antioch won the first game 15-9 with Linda Kasik, high scorer for Antioch and Candy Krueger, high scorer for Grant. Antioch won the second game 15-11 with Kandy Shute, high scorer; Miller, was scoring leader, for Grant.

The starting line-up for the A Team game was Debbie Haling, Judy Bjork, Marcia Doolittle, Lois Geist, Jane Zeman and Kathy Morenz. Antioch won the first game 15-2 with Lois Geist, high scorer for Antioch. The second game was won by Grant 15-3 the high scorer being Diane Soderman for Grant. The third game was played to a 15-5 win for Antioch, high scorers being Judy Bjork and Lois Geist for Antioch and Barrettsmith for Grant.

The girls volleyball team won their first game last Tuesday, November 27, against Grant. Their B team won the first two games of their match, and the A team won the first and the third. Tuesday, December 4, the volleyball team played Woodstock.

The boys basketball team played their first game Friday night against Libertyville. The final score of that game was Antioch-49, Libertyville-52. Although they lost the team still has high hopes for their next game.

So far this year there haven't been any pep assemblies held during school. In past years, pep assemblies were held for Homecoming, the opening of basketball and wrestling, and if any teams were going into tournament. These assemblies produced a great deal of school spirit, which helped give the Sequoit teams the confidence and moral they need.

The Concert Band will perform its first concert Sunday, December 16, at 7:30 p.m. It will be a combination choir-band concert. The concert will be held in the ACHS auditorium.

The Tom-Tom staff would like students to write for the paper. To do so you need not be on the staff, but just be interested enough to write an article. If that doesn't appeal to you there is always the "Voice Box", in which you can state opinions, gripes, or just to inform the student body of some fact you think might be of interest to them.

CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES COUNCIL, MIDWEST, INVITES ANTIOCH STUDENTS TO ATTEND SEMINAR

Students from Antioch area schools have been invited to attend the Chemistry Career Seminar to be sponsored by the Chemical Industries Council, Midwest.

The Seminar will be held on Friday, January 11, 1974 at the Pick-Congress Hotel, Chicago. Students will register from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

A feature of the Seminar is person-to-person counseling by men and women from chemical and pharmaceutical companies located in the Chicago area. The counselors will outline the requirements for a career in chemistry. Representatives from Chicago area colleges and universities will counsel students on educational requirements.

The students will receive an orientation to careers in the chemical industry through opening orientation sessions which will cover the basic career areas in the industry—research, production, marketing, engineering, and miscellaneous job categories.

A special area has been set aside for displays and demonstrations.

Free educational literature from companies and educational institutions will also be available to students.

According to George Barrett, Union Carbide Corporation, CIC Seminar Chairman, this is the only type of event held in the Chicago area designed to provide students with first-hand information on the many jobs in chemistry. Barrett feels that the seminar will be as successful as the 1972 seminar, when over 1,100 Chicago area students and teachers registered and attended. He attributed the record-breaking attendance to the Council's scheduling the event on Friday. The 1974 Seminar is also scheduled for a Friday.

The Chemical Industries Council-Midwest is composed of more than 30 leading chemical and pharmaceutical companies with offices, plants or laboratories in the midwest. The Council sponsors a wide variety of educational activities for students and teachers including an annual Conference and Luncheon for Chemistry Teachers and Guidance Counselors, outstanding teacher awards and scholarships at the college undergraduate level.

CLC NEWS

The College of Lake County offers unique group counseling courses through its Personal Development Series (PDS).

According to CLC counselor Dave Beck, Career Exploration (PDS 102) is designed to help people of all ages establish and attain realistic vocational goals. "The course is for students seriously interested in exploring and choosing possible new careers," he said.

Human Relations Lab (PDS 103) provides the student with a chance to improve his ability to relate to other people by becoming more aware of his own thoughts and feelings. "We try to increase a participant's awareness of emotional reactions in himself and others," Beck said. "Students interact openly and hopefully achieve personal growth."

A special segment of Human Relations Lab is reserved for married couples only. Couples participate in a seminar with discussion, feedback, activities, and exercises designed to help each member.

Counselor Gail Montgomery is instructor for the popular The Psychology of Being a Woman (PDS 104). "We encourage the student to explore her own ability to grow, be intelligent, and feel alive—in other words, to experience her fullest potential as a person," she said.

The objectives of the course include building an awareness of current attitudes, roles, and behaviors, focusing on strengths, and tapping unused potential. "We emphasize the right of each woman to make her own life and to develop as fully as she can," Ms. Montgomery explained.

Human Potential Seminars (PDS-121) are offered especially for students who wish to gain more self-confidence, motivation, and direction. "Through small groups, we help students become more aware of their personal strengths, successes, failures, goals, and values," Beck said.

Interested persons are invited to call the CLC counseling center, at 223-6601, for more information on the Personal Development Series and Group Counseling.

The 1974 spring semester starts January 14. Part-time students may register at CLC by appointment until December 21 or by telephone, December 10-14, at 223-6661.

CHRISTMAS DOLLS. In past years, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shultis have repaired dolls and other toys, to be contributed to the Toys for Tots program. Since Mr. Shultis passed away during the past year, Mrs. Shultis has continued the charitable work. These are some of the dolls which were given to her by area residents and which she has cleaned and repaired. (Staff Photo)

GROWTH IN WESTERN LAKE COUNTY REAL ESTATE MARKET EXPECTED

Local Realtor Michael Warren was installed Monday as a director of the Multiple Listing Service for Lake County Board of Realtors, Warren was inducted for a one year term.

The Antioch firm of Michael Warren & Company has been very active in the area. In addition to single family houses, the firm is involved in commercial and industrial developments.

At a recent Staff Meeting, Mike Warren made some observations regarding the current real estate scene. While single family home sales have tapered off, homes are being sold in this area as seller's recognize the problems of obtaining mortgage money and decide to sell on contract. Dollar volume of sales with the Warren firm continue to be well ahead of sales at this time last year.

Because of its rural nature, the Antioch area is not as dramatically affected by the current stock market say as areas like Chicago. Real estate valuation is a major factor in the Antioch economy. These valuations have continued to increase in response to supply and demand and inflation. While some leveling off is expected in the amount of growth of real estate value, the fact that inflation is expected to continue as is the flow of population, business, and industry to the suburbs.

The stock market has, over the past two years, become subject to erratic sudden swings. With the dramatic drop currently in progress, it can be expected that many investors will be moving their funds out of the market and into the more stable and better yielding real estate investments. For this reason, we are expecting a growing real estate market in western Lake County.

TRUCKLOAD OF TOYS. Marine G. Sgt. Terry Puida and HMC L.D. Linton load the toys contributed by Mrs. Clarence Shultis to the Toys for Tots program. Marines in Waukegan will distribute the repaired toys to needy families for Christmas. (Staff Photo)

Refreshments will be served by the members from the Gurnee, Round Lake and Vernon Units.

Bts from Barb

By: Barb Olson

For the past few days the Yearbook pictures of the various clubs and organizations have been taken at ACHS. Every few minutes a group of students is called over the intercom to go to a designated place to be photographed. This is difficult for both the teachers and the photographer. The teachers have to tolerate students leaving in the middle of a class, then returning. This is confusing and disruptive. The photographer has to try to get a group of squirming people arranged so that they will form a presentable picture.

If anyone happened to be looking around inside the school, they might be surprised at the strange way the students were milling in the halls. Some groups of students posed in staircases for their pictures. Others might be found sitting or standing in the middle of a hallway. Still others might be found sitting on top of gym lockers. These were only a few of the many different ways the students could think of.

Girls from Antioch Community High School won two matches from Grant in the school's first interscholastic volleyball action, November 17.

The starting line-up for the B Team was Kim Vasek, Kim Case, Linda Kasik, Debbie LaFata, Janet Gillimore and Terri Schleusener. Antioch won the first game 15-9 with Linda Kasik, high scorer for Antioch and Candy Krueger, high scorer for Grant. Antioch won the second game 15-11 with Kandy Shute, high scorer; Miller, was scoring leader, for Grant.

The starting line-up for the A Team game was Debbie Haling, Judy Bjork, Marcia Doolittle, Lois Geist, Jane Zeman and Kathy Morenz. Antioch won the first game 15-2 with Lois Geist, high scorer for Antioch. The second game was won by Grant 15-3 the high scorer being Diane

Soderman for Grant. The third game was played to a 15-5 win for Antioch, high scorers being Judy Bjork and Lois Geist for Antioch and Barrett Smith for Grant.

The girls volleyball team won their first game last Tuesday, November 27, against Grant. Their B team won the first two games of their match, and the A team won the first and the third. Tuesday, December 4, the volleyball team played Woodstock.

DECEMBER, 1973, IN ILLINOIS HISTORY

Christmas Was Only A Partial Holiday A Century Ago

Christmas as it was celebrated a century ago in Illinois was a half-holiday. The schools and banks were closed, of course, and there were special church services, but most of the stores were open a part of the day and so was the post office. The post offices in both Chicago and Springfield closed at 10 a.m. but there were mail deliveries in both cities before that hour.

A sampling of the 110 Illinois newspapers for the period in the Illinois State Historical Library here shows that, while the children did "hang their stockings by the chimney with care" and Old St. Nicholas was there, the stores did very little advertising to lure him.

The modest Christmas ads were usually headed "Holiday Presents," "Holiday Goods,"

"Christmas Bazar," or "Santa Claus." The 6-inch advertisement of Field, Leiter & Co. in the Chicago Times of Dec. 22 offered "For the Holidays... Handsome shawls and scarfs, Sealskin Sagues, and fur sets, Cloaks, Redingotes, and Suits." The advertising very seldom mentioned prices. The Field, Leiter ad concluded with the statement that "The above comprise articles of value particularly appropriate for gifts, and many of them at merely nominal prices."

A slightly discordant Christmas advertising note appearing in the Illinois State Journal was headed "Horrible Murder" in large type similar to that used for news stories. This was followed in smaller type by the wording, "at DeWitt's, in prices of hats, caps, gloves, neckwear and gents' furnishing goods."

In 1873 Christmas came on Thursday and the daily papers carried a Dec. 25 dateline. But the State Journal had an unusual note saying, "That the employees of the Journal Company may duly celebrate Christmas, there will be no Journal issued tomorrow." The next issue was dated Saturday, Dec. 27.

The Chicago Times which did publish on Dec. 26 headed its Christmas story, "A Jolly Day - Christmas Was Generally Observed in Chicago - And Our Pious Citizens Repaired to the Churches En Masse - Always Excepting the Many Who Went to the Theatres and the Others Who Got Drunk - A Further Exception Is Made for the Few Who Staid at Home and Gormandized."

The story that followed said that "The weather was of an undefinable character, and what your coffee-fed Londoner would call 'nasty'. There was just enough snow on the night before to resolve itself into disagreeable slush, so that invitations to pedestrianize were quietly but firmly refused.

Our country cousins were now and then visible on the horse-cars. Candy besmeared children were to be met wherever there were any children at all, and the confectionery stores did a lively business so long as they kept open. All the stores and business houses were closed by noon.

The Weekly Bureau County Republican of Princeton on Christmas published a column of more than 50 "Condensed Local Items," some of which read: "To-day is Christmas. Snowballs are scarce. Husking corn is over. Bank up your houses. Runaways are unpopular. 1873 almanacs are played out. Wild winter winds wail wickedly. Sleighs and cutters are being repaired. The farmers have been coming into town at a lively rate lately. As the weather freezes up the matrimonial market warms up. Don't make more resolves for the New Year than you will keep. The gayest hop of the season is to be given in the American hall on New Years eve. The roads have been in a fearful condition, but are now very passable in and near town still, a little rough out in the country."

"A THIEF IN THE NIGHT" TO BE SHOWN AT THE ANTIOCH EVANGELICAL FREE CHURCH

A Thief In The Night, a new color film will be shown at The Antioch Evangelical Free Church, Tiffany Road at Highview Drive on Sunday, December 9 at 4:00 and 6:00 p.m.

A Thief In the Night is a mighty motion picture about Bible prophecy. It shows what can happen when Jesus Christ returns. This exciting story centers around Patty, an average girl caught up in living for the present, with little concern about the future. What happens when this thinking finally catches up with her provides an action packed, unforgettable drama.

The fast moving pace includes a young man confronted by a deadly Asian cobra, a young girl's daring escape from jail, and a take-over by "The Imperium" that regards all who are not properly identified as enemies of the system.

Filmed on location in Iowa, this picture portrays with devastating reality the Biblical prediction, "There will be no place to hide." One does not merely view this film, he experiences it. Every thinking person will seriously consider its impact.

Mark IV Pictures Incorporated has recently been formed in Des Moines, Iowa, for the purpose of creating theatrical-quality evangelical motion pictures for the church market.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

In the Bible in St. Luke 8 we read of Jesus's healing of the daughter of Jairus, even though she was pronounced dead.

In the Lesson-Sermon entitled God the Only Cause and Creator this Sunday, this citation will be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "Can there be any birth or death for man, the spiritual image and likeness of God? Instead of God sending sickness and death, He destroys them, and brings to light immortality."

Services at First Church of Christ Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rte 173 and Harden, Antioch, Illinois begin at 11 a.m. Children will be cared for.

"Hindsight's Better Than Foresight"

By: Father Keusal

The Police Department of Antioch knows that it means to be in conflict with evil. They spend twenty-four hours a day restoring law and order in the village. There is peace in the village when all the citizens agree to live by the same general norms. Only when all are living by the same norms can a man trust enough to reach out to others that he might come to the fullness of life.

Norms and standards may vary in different communities but there is at least one norm that brings about the fullness of life for all men - that norm is truth. Truth brings healing. Truth may be uncomfortable at times but is always the best policy. A lie, the absence of truth does not come in sizes, "it was only a small lie" or in colors, "it was only a white lie."

A Christian who follows Jesus Christ professes to be dedicated to the truth and will then come into conflict with the world. The world continues to ask what is truth. The truth will give the Christian wholeness, will open the door of humanity.

During this season of Advent the Christian attempts to become more aware of what it means to have Jesus as the way, the truth and the life. Jesus has given us the way in truth to have a full life. Truth is not always the standard practiced in the world and for this reason the Christian comes to grips with the world. But in this paradoxical conflict the Christian lives a life of peace.

With A "Stern Eye"

As I sat last evening in the neo-Nixonian gloom of my living room, I thought long and hard about the differences between lawyers and real people. Huddled in my shawl, blanket over my knees, I was dimly able to make out the shorthand notes in front of me which testified to the hours spent that day and the day before listening to the professionals practice their craft.

You must understand that I am married to one, but that is not the same as observing an attorney in his natural habitat, the courtroom. Domestication alters the natural curl of the lip into an expression that is very nearly pleasant.

I have spent the past several days as part of a three-person Electoral Board, appointed by statute, and called into being by the filing of a challenge to the Candidacy petitions of Francis T. "Mike" Graham, incumbent member of the County Board from District No. 5. The other two members of the Board are Jack Hoogasian, State's Attorney, and Associate Judge Robert McQueen.

Because at this writing, no decision has been handed down I shall avoid any comment on the evidence or the testimony or even my own bizarre reactions thereto. (Words, like 'thereto' come very easily to one who has spent the last several days closeted with barristers). As a matter of fact the whole subject requires the skills of a second language. Take a phrase like "Ad Testificandum and Subpoenas Duces Tecum." It sounds like a Chapter heading from Masters and Johnson (or the Evergreen Review).

The statute stipulates (another good legal word) that an Electoral Board be made up of the County Clerk, the State's Attorney and an Associate Judge. It seems to me that the legislature should ask itself about the political implications inherent in such a personnel; all three are themselves subject to election and subject to the sometimes partisan friendships and hostilities of political life. Assuming a built-on conflict of interest for some of us, the statute appears to permit a substitution only if the 'defendant' is applying for one of the offices held by his 'judges.'

Certainly it would seem to be questionable practice to line up a layman, however well intentioned, with two professional evidence-weighters such as a State's Attorney and a Circuit Court Judge. I like to think I have added the refreshing common-sense approach of plain folks to this tribunal, but I'm not sure my electoral colleagues would agree. We plain folks tend to sort things out in fairly simplistic terms: 'that makes sense' I can't swallow that' or 'oh come on now!' The gentlemen of the panel how-

"A CONSUMER'S GUIDE TO POSTAL SERVICES AND PRODUCTS" AVAILABLE FREE AT ANTIOCH POST OFFICE

"What's the difference between registered and certified mail?"

"How can postal customer's be assured next-day delivery of important documents to distant cities?"

Persons wanting to know the answer to these and dozens of other questions will find the answers in "A Consumer's Guide to Postal Services and Products" Postmaster Barnas said. Copies of the 16-page guide are available without charge at the Antioch Post Office.

The attractively designed guide was published by the Postal Service in response to the thousands of questions postal employees and Postal Service's Consumer Advocate in Washington receive from customers.

In addition to describing the characteristics of the four principle classes of mail and how to use them, the guide tells the best ways to send valuables through the mail, the limits on international money orders and how to send parcels to servicemen stationed overseas.

The Consumer's Guide also invites customers to speak up and ask for help if they have questions or problems with their mail service. Postmaster Barnas urges customers wanting assistance with mail problems to get in touch with their postmaster or another local postal official.

If a problem can't be solved at the local level, postal customers are urged to write directly to: The Consumer Advocate, U.S. Postal Service, Washington, D.C. 20260.

ever, prefer to refer to something known as Smith Hurd (or Heard or Herd) and make passing comments on Case Law and Corpus Juris. I am barely holding my own.

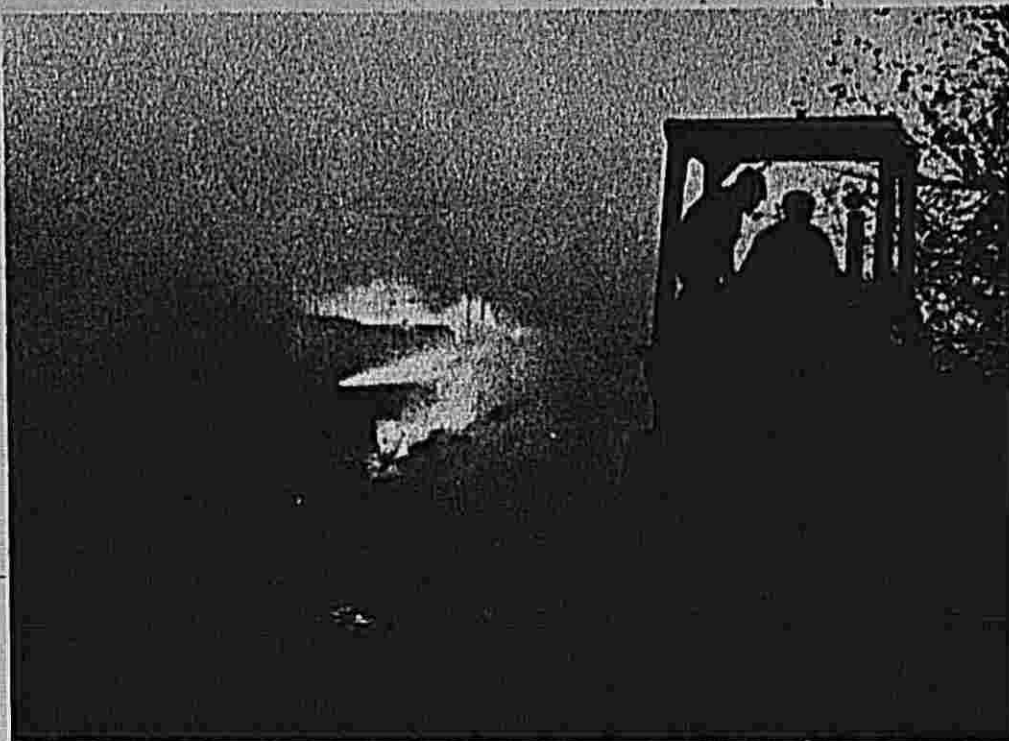

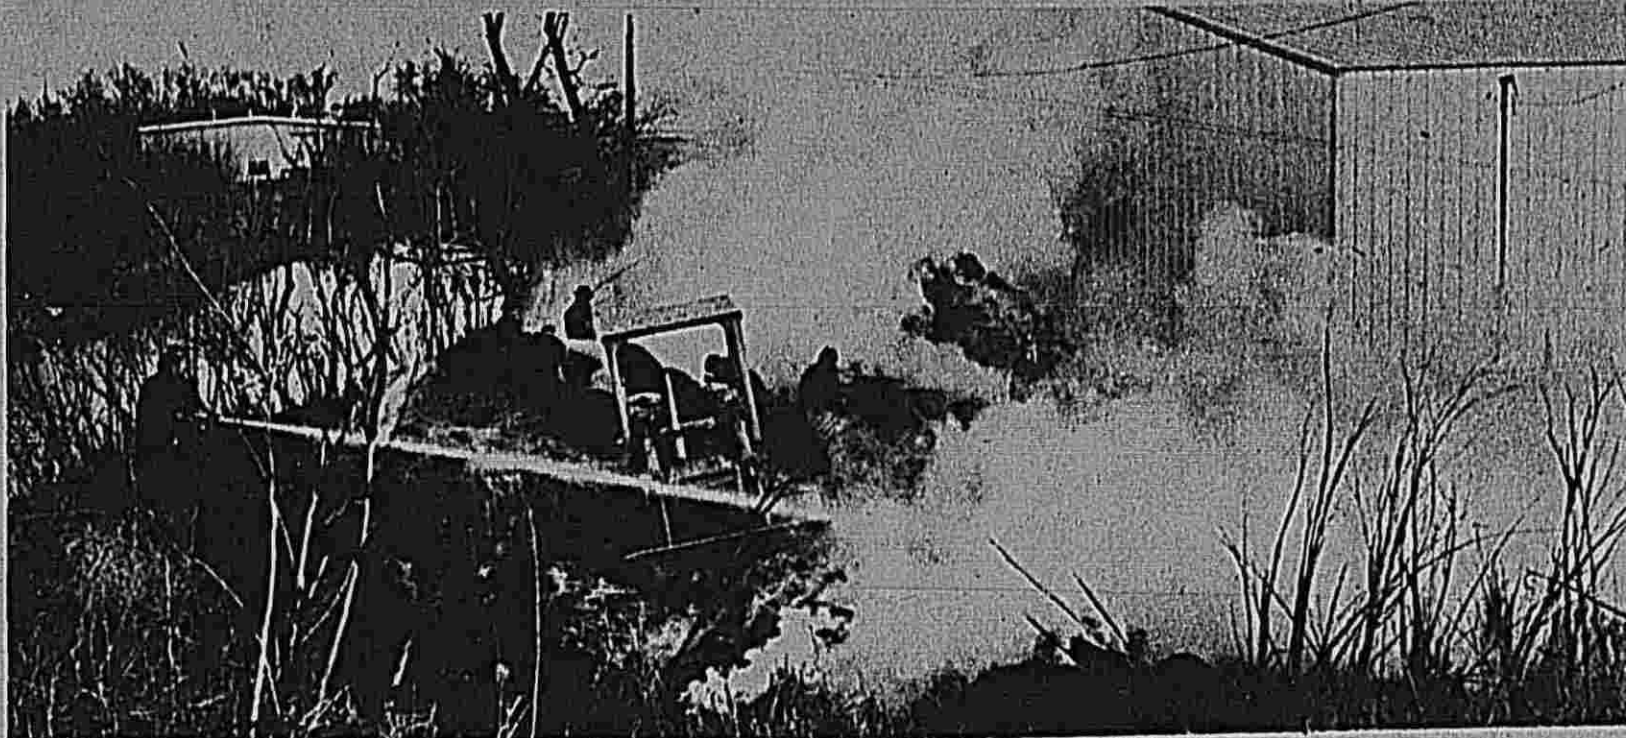

Today, the first day after the close of the hearing, we met in Judge McQueen's chambers to begin weighing and discussing the evidence. Unlike the juries whom I have seen enjoying a splendid lunch in downtown restaurants, we three shared one of the vilest collations imaginable. The judge's bailiff cheerfully brought us three sandwiches from the basement slot machine--'chopped pork cutlet' I think it was, on hamburger bun. If it hadn't been for the potato chips--

We are meeting again tomorrow. After lunch.

In the meantime I am analyzing Kasper et al. v. Pontikes (the Supreme Court decision naturally), and before I go over to the court building tomorrow I shall try to track down some light reading in Madison vs. Sims and perhaps a spot of Telscher vs. Holzman (201 N.E. 2nd 370).

We have always made a point, in the County Clerk's office, of being available to advise would-be candidates on petition problems, but we shall make a far greater point of it from now on. An ounce of prevention.

After all, Personna non grata. Or, more appropriately, Nolo Contendere...

STRAW BURNS. Firemen had a difficult time putting out a fire in a pile of straw behind the Laursen and Blackman storage building near the Soo Line tracks and Sequoit Creek, Wednesday and Thursday. A caterpillar, called in to spread out the straw, lost its traction and had to be towed out. Firemen returned to the scene three times before the smoldering fire was finally extinguished. Another fire in a farm silo gave the department trouble several times over the weekend. (Staff Photos)

LAKE VILLA AGENCY FEATURED ON WJJD

The Allendale School for Boys, Grand Avenue, Lake Villa, is featured on WJJD radio (1160 A.M.) public service spot announcements for the 1973 Crusade of Mercy campaign.

Mr. Dean Beguhl, director of development, tells how the Allendale School for Boys is providing critical human care services that meet urgent community needs.

He said: "The Allendale School for Boys, a Crusade of Mercy recipient, wishes to urge all those citizens interested in the care and treatment of disturbed children and adolescents to contribute generously to this year's Crusade of Mercy fund raising campaign.

Allendale was founded 77 years ago to provide dependent and neglected children with a home and school environment which would foster their growth and development. We are still in the business of serving children. Only now, the care provided is designed to dependent and neglected children with severe emotional or behavioral disorders. This type of service costs more and requires the support of citizens through their generous contributions to the Crusade of Mercy campaign, a group of people helping people."

The Allendale School for Boys is one of 75 agencies within the six county Chicago metropolitan area that is participating in the public service project on WJJD.

"WJJD is providing a valuable public service to the people of the Chicago metropolitan area," said Phillip A. Merriman, executive director of the Suburban Community Chest Council.

"Through these announcements," Merriman added, "listeners are able to get a better understanding of how these Crusade-supported agencies help people."

Produced by Public Service Director Mark Edwards, the announcements are broadcast by station WJJD to enlist support for the Crusade of Mercy. The Crusade supports the Suburban Community Chest Council with its 87 participating chests and funds, the Community Fund of Chicago and the Mid-America Chapter of the American Red Cross.

REPRESENTATIVE DONALD DEUSTER WILL RUN FOR RE-ELECTION

State Representative Donald E. Deuster (R. Mundelein) will run for re-election to a second term in the Illinois House of Representatives at Springfield.

In a letter to friends and Republican Party leaders, Deuster said he would seek re-election, and he expressed his "deep gratitude for the privilege of serving you at Springfield."

Stating the legislative philosophy that has guided him, Deuster said: "As your Illinois State Representative, my duty, as I sense it, is to work hard for you in a constructive way, never to dodge hard decisions, to keep you well-informed, and to reflect your best thinking in all my efforts at Springfield."

Deuster is a Member of the House Committees on Transportation, Motor Vehicles, and Human Resources. He is Chairman of the Subcommittee on Mass Transportation, is considered one of the hardest working legislators at the Capitol and highly knowledgeable in the field of transportation.

Deuster, age 44, is a lawyer, and was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on September 26, 1929. He graduated from Ripon College in 1952 with a B.A. in political science and economics. After earning his L.L.B. from the University of California Law School at Los Angeles, Deuster has become admitted to practice law in Illinois, California, and before the U.S. Supreme Court. Before entering the public service in 1962, he was Assistant Counsel and Assistant to the Chairman of the Board of Kemper Insurance.

Deuster is married to the former Kay Brink of LaCrosse, Wisconsin, and they reside on Sylvan Lake in Fremont Township with their four daughters: Mary, a freshman at the University of Illinois; Ruth, a sophomore at Mundelein High School; Jane, a third grader at the Fremont School; and Anne, age four.

So that constituents may easily reach him, Deuster maintains a Legislative District Office at 510 North Lake Street (Highway 45) in Mundelein. The office telephone 566-1972 also rings at his home so that the State Representatives may be reached 24 hours a day.

OVER $400,000 IN UNCLAIMED 1972 STATE REFUND CHECKS BELONG TO TAXPAYERS WHO CANNOT BE LOCATED

The Illinois Department of Revenue has over $400,000 in unclaimed 1972 state refund checks that belong to thousands of taxpayers who cannot be located, Robert H. Allphin, state revenue director, announced Wednesday.

"If you haven't received your 1972 state tax refund, it could be one of over 11,000 checks returned to the department by the Post Office marked undeliverable," Allphin said.

"The main reason checks are returned as undeliverable is that taxpayers fail to notify the Department of Revenue of a change in their address when they move."

The revenue director noted that undeliverable refund checks currently being held by the department average about $37.

"If refund recipients are not found, their unclaimed refund checks are voided and the amount is credited to the taxpayer's 1973 account," Allphin said.

Taxpayers can claim their refunds by writing to the Illinois Department of Revenue, Undeliverable Refund Section, Tax Processing Center, P.O. Box 3747, Springfield, Illinois 62708.

The taxpayer must include his name, social security number and new address.

The following list contains the names of area taxpayers whose refunds are undeliverable:

7th and 8th GRADE BASKETBALL TEAMS FORMED

Boys from the 7th and 8th grades of the Antioch Upper Grade Center have formed a basketball team coached by fathers of the boys on the team. Mr. Tom Poulos is the 7th grade coach and Mr. John O'Hara coaches the eighth grade team. The teams are members of the Northwest Grade School Conference League, and have a regular conference play schedule. The school does not support them at all, however they use the gym floor and use the school uniforms remaining from when the school had a team.

8th Grade Apaches Lose Openers

The eight grade Antioch Apaches played the opening game of their season against the Grayslake Panthers Thursday, November 29.

Antioch held the lead at the end of the first quarter. However, the Panthers came back in the second quarter and kept the lead the rest of the game. Final score was Grayslake 44 - Antioch 32.

High scorer for the Apaches was Brian Andrews with 13 points. Dave Brooke followed with 7, Dennis Korjenek with 6, Tim Kuenheold with 4, and Ken Rosenbrock with 2. Dave Brooke fouled out in the fourth quarter and was replaced by Fred Bentel.

The Apaches' next game will be played at home against Gavin, Thursday, December 6.

Grayslake Stops 7th Grade Apaches 37-17

Antioch had trouble stopping guard McClain who scored 8 baskets and 2 free throws for a total of 18 points. Antioch had trouble penetrating or getting the ball in for a good shot.

With a little more practice, we hope to see some improved in our next game at Antioch with Gavin.

Soph Matmen Win Conference Opener

Friday evening the Antioch wrestlers won their opening match in the N.W.S.C. race before a packed house at Grayslake High School. The Sequoits jumped to a quick 18-3 lead with wins by Robin Aerne, John Pocrnich and Greg Nordstrom. Grayslake kept chopping away at the Sequoit lead and saw their bid for a come-from-behind victory fall just short. The final score was Antioch 31 and Grayslake 27.

The Saturday afternoon match against Dundee had another thrilling finish with the Sequoits taking an early lead and holding on for a close 33-29 victory. Standouts in the Dundee match were Mike Walsh, Mark Ring and Dick Kessler. Each of the Antioch wrestlers scored a fall, and allowed the Antioch Matmen to run their season team record to 3 wins without a loss.

This Friday (December 7, 1973) the Sequoits will be host to the Lake Zurich Bears in a N.W.S.C. match at Antioch beginning at 6:45 p.m. On Saturday (December 8, 1973) Lake Forest will be at Antioch for a 1:00 p.m. match.

CHAIN O'LAKES PARK OPEN TO SNOWMOBILERS

Chain O'Lakes State Park is one of eight state parks in Illinois that will be open to snowmobiling this winter, according to State Conservation director Tony Dean. However, Dean warns that failure of users to observe trail regulations could force closing of the sites to snowmobiling.

Illinois Beach State Park in Zion, a popular snowmobiling site last year, will not be open to the sport this year because of repeated abuses of trail regulations last season.

User registration offices are provided at all eight sites and warming houses are available at five of them. Concession stands, special parking facilities and pavilions may be open in some areas.

In the Chain O'Lakes park, snowmobiling will be limited to frozen water areas only, and a registration area will be the only facility provided. No snowmobiling will be permitted on park lands.

The other state parks open to snowmobiling are: Lake Le-Aqua-Na, Stephenson County; Mississippi Palisades, Carroll County; Rock Cut, Winnebago County; Silver Springs, Kendall County; Kankakee River, Kankakee County; Hennepin Canal, Rock Island, Bureau and Henry Counties; and Johnson-Sauk Trail, Henry County.

Snowmobiling will be permitted only when there is at least a four-inch snow base on frozen ground, according to Dean. Users must register with park management upon arrival at the sites.

Sequoit Wrestlers Compile 1-1-1 Record

The Antioch Varsity Wrestling team, having beat Zion on November 21, traveled to Grayslake Friday night for their first conference meet and were beaten 39-13. Grayslake fielded an experienced varsity team that took advantage of a packed gym and some early Sequoit mistakes to win eight of the twelve matches.

The large score spread was due to the fact that Grayslake had six pins while the Sequoits won 3 matches by decision. Scott Shaffer won by an 11 to 1 score to add four points to the Sequoit total.

Saturday the Dundee Cardinals visited the Sequoits and came from behind to gain a 22-22 tie. Antioch won four matches and tied two as did Dundee. The Sequoits took an early lead that went 11-2 after 4 matches. But a last second win at 145 tied the score at 13-13. The lead changed hands twice in the last four weights, but a pin by the Dundee heavyweight tied the score.

Coach Ted DeRousse has a line up that includes 9 Juniors and 1 Senior, who was not a varsity regular last year. The only varsity experience to be found is shared by Dirk Dietz and Bill Beese who are seniors this year.

"Our mistakes are not ones of enthusiasm, but of inexperience," DeRousse commented. "It is a long jump from the sophomore level to the varsity, and we have 9 wrestlers who are making that move. They're going to lose the close ones early in the year, but by the tournaments at the end of the year we'll be ready."

This week's outstanding wrestler is Dave Severson a junior wrestling at 105 lbs. Dave won his two matches this week 7-5 and 13-4.

The JV's had no match against Grayslake but won 54-9 against Dundee.

Upcoming matches are: Friday Antioch vs Lake Zurich 6:45 Home; Saturday Antioch vs Lake Forest 1:00 Home.

RICK NELSON PART OF WIU'S DRIVE FOR NATIONAL WRESTLING CROWN

Rick Nelson, of Antioch, is one of several possible national champions on which Western Illinois University's wrestling coach, Pete Rodriguez, is pinning his hopes for the national college wrestling championship.

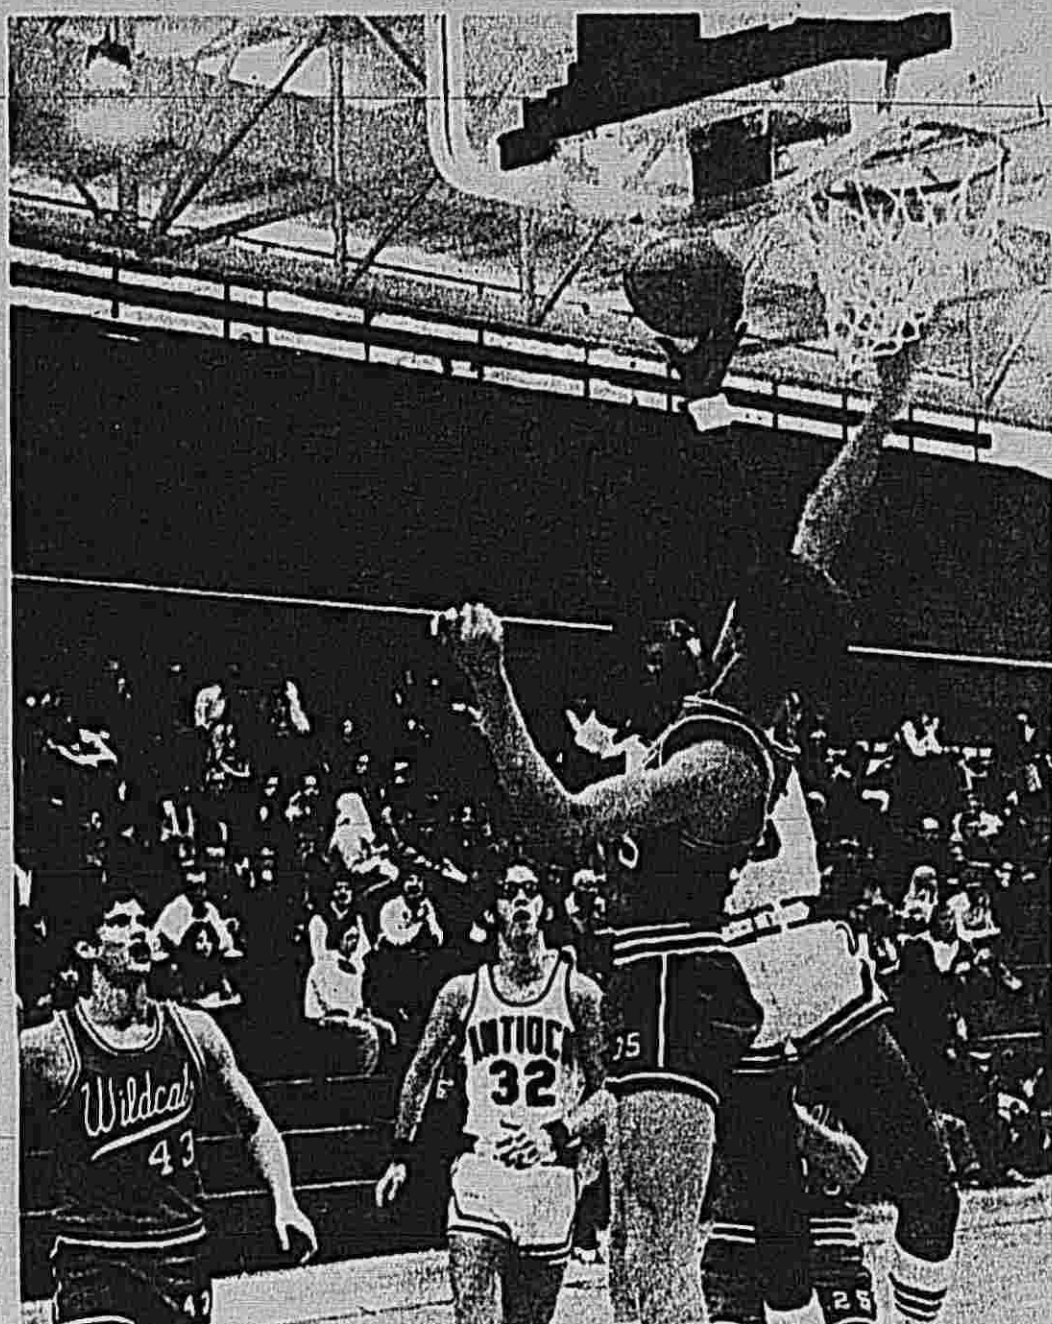

Pre-season practice has been conducted by assistant coach Mitsuo Nakai, a native of Japan, because of Rodriguez' football coaching duties.

"Our goal is to win the national championship," says Nakai. "It's not just a dream, I really think it's possible."

Leading the Bulldog grapplers this season are All-Americans 177 pound senior Jim Kulpa, of Oak Forest, last year's national champion at that weight, and senior Jim Woods, of Chicago Heights, the heavyweight runner-up in 1972.

Nikai is confident that Nelson, 167 pound senior, who was 20-4-1 last season, is also a definite national champion contender.

The remaining spots on the squad will be filled with a number of returning lettermen or underclassmen with impressive high school records.

ANTIOCH LOSES HOME OPENER

In a closely-fought contest, the Libertyville Wildcats spoiled Antioch's home opener, taking the game 52-49.

The Wildcats started strong, jumping off to an early 7-2 lead. The Sequoits fought back to gain an 11-11 with 2:18 left in the first quarter, but at the end of the quarter Libertyville held a lead of 15-11.

The defense used by Libertyville, a box or diamond and one was used to stop the Sequoit team leader Mark Andrews. "We decided to use Mark as a decoy and let the other four players work against Libertyville's zone defense - as we hoped to use the advantage to our success in winning the game," stated Coach Roger Andrews.

The opening in the zone left Mike Perrone free in the middle and Mike Gutowski on the side to lead the Sequoits in scoring.

The game continued to be close all the way, with the score tied 44-44 at the close of the 3rd quarter.

At the start of the 4th quarter, the Sequoits bit quick for 5 points and a lead of 49-44. It seemed like the Sequoits were headed for a victory. But the Antioch scoring machine failed the last 6:42 of the quarter. Not only missing several good field shots, the Sequoits were also stone cold at the free throw line as they missed 5 free throws in the last 5 minutes.

With 3:39 left, Bob Leon hit two free throws to put Libertyville ahead 51-49, after which both teams turned the ball over several times and failed to score. As the clock ticked off the time, Mark Mieszala was fouled with only 38 seconds left, he sank the first shot, but missed the second. The Sequoits grabbed the rebound and had three or four attempts, but the ball just wouldn't drop for them.

Both teams played hard and the defense was good on both sides. Antioch outrebounded Libertyville 26 to 18, but was denied the scoring needed to win.

Stated Coach Andrews, "We sacrificed the play of one player hoping to win with the advantage against the zone. Mike Perrone and Mike Gutowski picked up the slack as they played very good games. It appears that the team is jelling at the right time, as we open up our conference play this Friday," added Coach Andrews.

The Antioch Sequoits travel to Lake Zurich Friday, December 7 for their first conference game. The game will feature two of the top rated teams in the conference.

SOPHS LOSE TO LIBERTYVILLE IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

The Antioch Sophomore Basketball Team was defeated by Libertyville last Friday evening by a score of 73 to 61. Trailing by only one point at half-time Antioch got into serious foul trouble in the third quarter. Scott Kimball and George Ferguson fouled out before the end of the third period and Antioch fell behind 61 to 50 entering the fourth quarter. The Sophs fought hard to get back into the game but could not overcome the good shooting of the Libertyville squad.

Jon Bodin led the Antioch team with 15 points followed by Scott Kimball with 14, George Ferguson with 13, Jeff Eder with 11 and Bob Dubek and Tim Sheppard each added 4 points.

Antioch opens conference play this Friday at Lake Zurich.
